

The Cave Trail

Pays de Bitche - Lemberg

Cascade des Ondines à Lemberg (Crédit photo OTIPB)

This very pretty route runs along forest paths that will take you from springs to caves, passing by some Gallo-Roman remains.

This short but sporty circuit, because of its difference in altitude, is punctuated with curiosities (springs, caves...).

This circuit is part of the paths of excellence of the Pays de Bitche (n°4). It is marked with a red disc all along the route, completed with the green "Sentiers d'excellence" badge. Starting from the Vosges clubhouse, the course leads quickly to the cascade of the ondines. Follow the direction of Louisloch and reach the American stele. This stele commemorates the battles of 1944 and 1945. Join the Krippenfelsen, Chorfelsen and Hasslingerfelsen caves. Cross the river and walk along the beautiful rocks. Arrival at the Bildmuehle (Gallo-Roman sculpture) and continue to the Helloch fountain (former village wash-house). Turn right into rue du moulin and then right again into rue de la montagne. Back to the starting point, turn right into the rue du mont des baies.
