This is a detailed topographic map of the village of Miesenheim in the Alsace region of France. The map is oriented with North at the top, indicated by a compass rose in the upper left corner. A scale bar in the bottom left corner shows a distance of 100 meters. The village center is marked with a yellow circle and labeled 'MIESSEHEIM' with 'Mairie' (municipal office) below it. Surrounding areas include 'Badenbaechel' to the northwest, 'Hohrain' to the northeast, and 'Hessengarten' to the south. The map shows a network of roads, including the 'RD PRINCIPALE' (yellow line) and various local roads like 'RD DE LA VALLÉE', 'RD DE LA MESSENGE', and 'RD DE L'ÉGLISE'. A blue line represents the 'Aire d'étape' (rest area). The map also shows green areas for parks and forests, and brown areas for buildings and infrastructure. The map is sourced from IGN/Geoportail, as indicated by the copyright notice in the bottom right corner.
